Water works to cause six month road disruption

MOTORISTS will face disruption along Dorchester Road in Weymouth as Wessex Water carries out six months of work to upgrade water mains between Manor Roundabout and Milton Terrace.

The company says it is investing £400,000 in the project to replace old pipes with new plastic ones, to prevent bursts in the future and improve water quality.

While the work is being carried out there will be temporary traffic lights along the section of Dorchester Road, Icen Road, Spa Road, Monmouth Avenue and Weymouth Bay Avenue will be closed at their junctions with Dorchester Road.

A diversion route will be set up, with access for residents and businesses. Melcombe Regis Councillor, Francis Drake, who runs Antonio's Cafe near the King's Statue in Weymouth, said he was concerned the works could effect the town's economy.

He said: "The work has obviously got to be done, but six months is a very long time for such disruption. Businesses are already suffering with the bus strikes. We're losing trade in Weymouth because people are being put off coming into the town and traffic disruption like this just adds to the problems."

"I know working at night may not be an option because it would disturb residents, but I hope that the work can be finished as quickly as possible and that they make sure there is clear sign-posting while it's taking place."

Wessex Water Design Engineer Alan Marler said that the work will be carried out in sections and an innovative dig technique will be used to help complete the work as quickly as possible.

He said: "We apologise for any traffic disruption the work may cause and thank motorists and residents for their patience and co-operation while this work is complete."

The work will start on 12th September and is expected to last for approximately 24 weeks.

EVENT director Sally Raynes and her company, Wacky Nation, have moved to Axminster.

Wacky Nation has worked with towns and festival across the UK for eight years, creating imaginative events to entertain the whole family.

Events include the World Gnome Bowling Championship devised in Letchworth, the annual World Christmas Cracker Throwing Championship created for Tiverton Town Team, crumpet frisbee at Devizes Food Festival and a Chilli Chuckin' Challenge set to take place at Salisbury Food Festival this year.

● WHERE were you born and where did you grow up?

I was born in Surrey but moved to Tiverton when I was seven for a great countryside upbringing

● WHAT was your dream job during childhood?

I wanted to be a children's TV presenter, particularly on something like Blue Peter where you could take part in lots of fun new experiences.

● WHAT was your first job?

My father taught us the value of money early in life so instead of pocket money we were paid a wage to do jobs and we would get a wage rise each year on our birthday.

● YOU now run Wacky Nation. In short, who else is involved, how did the company come about and what is it all about?

Having taken part in 100 wacky contests around the UK and written a guidebook on how to win, we decided it was time to devise some of our own.

Wacky Nation now works with town centres and festivals around the UK creating fun and entertaining world championships and wacky contests for their attendees. For instance we are planning a Halloween festival in East Devon and we run the sell-out UK Rock Paper Scissors Championship.

James Bamber comes up with the crazy ideas and then we have a wonderful team of professional event managers who freelance for us across the UK

● WHERE do you see Wacky Nation in five years' time?

Running very successful twice yearly family festivals with a twist; featuring off-the-wall contests such as crumpet-frisbee and pumpkin bowling, which will also support local community projects.

● WHAT made you move to Axminster?

We felt the local area would be a great location for a new fun themed food, drink and entertainment festival as there seems to be lots of exciting regeneration plans.

● FAVOURITE food and tippie?

I love food, so it's hard to find one answer but if I had to choose it would be lasagne with a nice glass of red wine.

● WHAT makes you happy?

Swimming in the sea with a bunch of friends and then going for a drink in a lovely pub afterwards

● WHAT makes you not so happy or angry?

The inequality all around. Life is so much more enriching when we think of others

● WHAT would you do if you won an obscene amount of money?

Reinvest the money into the business to make a really successful festival and share it with charities and community projects that I support.

Service to remember loved ones

WEYMOUTH Crematorium hold annual Service of Remembrance

Weymouth Crematorium will host its annual Service of Remembrance on Sunday, September 4th.

The service offers the opportunity for anyone to remember a friend, colleague or loved one irrespective of where or when previous funerals took place.

The service will start at 2pm and be taken by Father Richard Harper and Alicen Dines.

There will be hymns, poems, readings and music. There will also be the opportunity to light a candle in memory of a loved one.

Councillor Christine James, Brief Holder for Social Inclusion at

Weymouth & Portland Borough Council, said:

"Anyone from all faiths and beliefs are welcome to attend to reflect and remember loved ones that have sadly passed on."

"People can also take the opportunity to walk in the grounds of the crematorium and enjoy the rose garden in a peaceful atmosphere of collective remembrance."

Weymouth Crematorium on Quibo Lane, Weymouth is run by Weymouth & Portland Borough Council.

The chapel is open for private prayer from Monday to Friday, 9am to 4.30pm when no service is in progress.

A Book of Remembrance is situated in a room to the rear of the cloisters and is open from Monday to Friday, 9am to 4.30pm, and on weekends and Bank Holidays 10am to 4pm.

For more information contact Weymouth Crematorium on 01305 786984.

Garden party to keep bells ringing

VISITORS helped raise cash for a "ding-dong" event when Weymouth's St Paul's Church held a garden party in the grounds of the vicarage.

All money from the event is going to a special fund towards the renovation of the church bells.

Organiser Lesley Cheesman

said: "We had plants, home-made cakes, teas and coffees, bric-a-brac, books, CDs, puzzles and various raffles."

"We need the funds for repairs because one bell is broken and they all need retuning."

"One next big event is our Christmas bazaar in November."

Italian restaurant responds to earthquake appeal

■ THE all'amatriciana dish which is being sold to raise money for the Italian earthquake appeal

AFTER the devastating earthquake in Italy last week, Giuseppe Vannucci and Tim Newton from Al Molo, Weymouth's award winning, Italian fine dining restaurant, are doing their bit to support the relief effort.

All this week (until Sunday, September 4th) Al Molo will be serving all'a-matriciana, a traditional dish from the area hit by the earthquake, and donating £1.40 (roughly the equivalent of two Euros) to the British Red Crosses relief effort in Italy.

Diners will also be able to donate money even if they haven't had the all'amatriciana dish.

Call-outs for lifeboat

WEYMOUTH lifeboat has responded to a number of call-outs in the last few days.

The Weymouth all-weather lifeboat was launched at 5.30pm on Tuesday, August 23rd to the assistance of a 40' yacht, which had suffered an engine fire seven miles to the South West of Portland Bill.

The crew managed to extinguish the fire but with the engine unusable and an adverse tide and wind, help was needed to round the Bill.

Once on the scene, the lifeboat crew quickly established that the crew of the yacht were ok and only required a tow back to port.

The Weymouth inshore and all-weather lifeboats were launched at 4.10pm by Southern Coastguard on Saturday, August 27th to reports of a vessel on the rocks close to Kimmeridge Bay.

The inshore lifeboat located the 8.5m RIB on the rocks. It was found that the RIB had severely damaged its props after hitting rocks just below the surface at Broadbench Ledge, just to the West of Kimmeridge Bay.

The three persons on board were uninjured. The RIB was pulled clear of the rocks and taken a short distance off shore to the waiting All-weather lifeboat.

The Weymouth Inshore lifeboat was also launched at 3.30pm on Sunday, August 28th to carry out a medical evacuation at Lulworth Cove.

Seven people, including two adults, two children and a baby were taken ashore from a yacht at Lulworth Cove due to sea sickness.

Meanwhile Weymouth All-weather lifeboat was launched at 4.15pm to a 50' sail training yacht with 12 persons on board which had suffered engine failure just outside of Weymouth Harbour.

The crew towed the vessel to Portland Marina.

Refusal recommendation for Portland Heights

PLANS to demolish one of Portland's well-known landmarks looks set to be turned down at a council meeting on September 7th.

The plans which have been submitted by T K Homes Ltd include demolishing the Portland Heights Hotel and replacing it with a new hotel and 49 "later living" apartments.

Concerns include the impact and size of the design and insufficient agreement to provide affordable housing in line with the adopted West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland Local Plan.

Residents to have their say on the future of Dorset's local government

A MAJOR public consultation on the future shape of local government in Dorset has been launched.

Residents, along with businesses and other stakeholders, will be asked to give their views on a range of options proposed by all nine Dorset councils – Dorset County Council, West Dorset District Council, East Dorset District Council, North Dorset District Council, Purbeck Borough Council, Poole Borough Council, Bournemouth Borough Council, Christchurch Borough Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council – to address the unprecedented financial pressure on local services across the county.

The eight-week public consultation, called Reshaping Your Councils, will run until October 25th and is being run independently by research company Opinion Research Services.

Questionnaires will be sent to 20,000 households across Dorset but it is also available online as well as in libraries.

Residents will also be able to talk to staff and councillors about the consultation at a series of more than 40 public roadshows, which will be held at locations across Dorset, Bournemouth and Poole.

The options for consultation are retaining all nine councils or creating two new unitary councils for Dorset.

There are three options for creating two unitary authorities. The first is to combine Bournemouth, Poole, Christchurch and East Dorset together, while North Dorset, Purbeck, West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland would be another authority.

The second would include combining Bournemouth, Poole and Christchurch to make one authority and East Dorset, North Dorset, Purbeck, West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland to make another.

The last option is to have Bournemouth and Poole as one authority and combine Christchurch, East Dorset, North Dorset, Purbeck, West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland to create another.

Dorset's councils receive £142million less per year in government funding today than they did in 2010/11 and must have reduced costs by £200million per year by 2019/20.

An independent financial assessment by Local Partnerships estimates that, even with these budget reductions by 2019/20, the nine councils must reduce costs by a further £30.4million by 2025, meaning that valued public services would suffer even greater cuts beyond 2019/20. This is why the councils are now considering change.

Dorset councils commissioned Local Partnerships to look at the potential savings and costs of options for reorganising local government across the county. A two unitary council model would save a total of £108million over the first six years, based on financial modelling conducted by Local Partnerships.

The one off transition costs to replace the existing nine councils with two unitary councils would be around £25million.

Cllr Anthony Alford, vice-chairman of the Dorset leaders' growth board, said: "Dorset's nine councils collectively spend £920million a year delivering services to our local residents. These councils receive £142million per annum less government funding today than they did in 2010/11.

"Over the next two years, to April 2019, a further £52million will need to be saved to balance further funding cuts and service pressures. Therefore, by 2019/20, Dorset's councils will need to have reduced their annual spending by almost £200million since 2010/11.

"Despite all our hard work to make our councils more efficient and protect frontline services, the financial reality is that current structure of local government is not sustainable.

"A further £30.4million less will be available to spend per annum between 2019 and 2025 and the harsh reality is that many services will have to change drastically, or even stop altogether if savings cannot be made."

Tony Williams, chief executive of Bournemouth Borough Council and lead officer for the public consultation, said: "The Local Partnerships report is a significant milestone in our collective journey to reform local government throughout Dorset.

"It provides Dorset's nine councils with a firm financial basis to consult with residents, businesses and key stakeholders on the future of local government in the county.

"All councils are committed to an extensive public consultation and are keen that local people have their say. Every single resident in Dorset has the chance to have their say.

"By contacting 20,000 directly, and making the questionnaire available to any Dorset resident or interested party, we are confident that anyone who would like to have a say will have an opportunity to do so and to influence the final recommendation."

Following the consultation, all nine councils will then decide whether to present a full business case for local government reform to the government early next year, based on the results of the consultation, the independent financial analysis and a detailed case for change.

If agreed, new councils would begin delivering services from April 2019, with elections in May 2019.

Magna dress down for children's hospice

MAGNA Housing staff in Dorchester have given a £300 donation to Julia's House, the charity which supports families in Dorset and Wiltshire.

The money comes from "dress down Friday" donations where staff pay £1 for the chance to wear more casual clothes at work once a month.

Julia's House, like most children's hospices, gets very little money from the government (only about five per cent of the money they need to operate). The rest has to come from fundraising efforts.

Following the £300 donation, Suzanne Muncaster, head of HR at Magna, went to meet Sue Miles, business fundraiser for Julia's House, at their hospice in Corfe Mullen to see how some of the money raised would be used.

Suzanne said: "Visiting the hospice was a real eye opener and I learnt a huge amount about how the charity operates. I'm so pleased we chose this charity. We do our best to support the communities we are based in, and this is a great way of giving something back to local charities."

Sue explained more about Julia's House: "We look after around six to eight children at a time in the hospice, from babies up to 18-year-olds, and put on activities specially suited to their needs and ages."

"The children suffer from a whole range of conditions, many are very rare and some are so rare they are not even named. Many of the children are very bright, but have physical disabilities which hinder them doing the things they want to. Around 70 per cent of the children who attend are in motorised wheelchairs and 40 per cent are tube fed."

Julia's House also provide end of life care. The hospice is not a hospital setting, it is a home with medical support, and they have an area set aside with a bedroom, sitting room and bathroom so that families can be together, in a home setting, with the medical support they need at that toughest time.

Said Sue: "Magna's donation will buy some precious care time for a seriously ill child and their family, which is the best gift you could possibly give."

"It is thanks to kind donations such as Magna's, that every part of our care is free of charge for these families. Mum and dad can rely on respite that helps to bring some control back into their lives, giving them strength to make sense of their circumstances and to face their whole future with more confidence and hope."

Free prostate cancer testing

FREE blood tests are being offered to those at risk of developing prostate cancer in Dorchester.

In the UK around 42,000 men are diagnosed with prostate cancer each year. Almost 11,000 men die of this disease annually, but if caught in the early stages, before any symptoms develop, then cure rates, which have dramatically improved over recent years, are now over 80 per cent.

A simple blood test called the "PSA test" can determine whether you are at risk, but this is not currently routinely offered to men by the NHS.

Dorset Prostate Cancer Support Organisation, in conjunction with the New-Man Prostate Cancer Support Group, will be offering free PSA Testing in Dorchester on Saturday, September 17th at The Dorford Centre from 9.40am to 1pm.

The testing is conducted by trained phlebottomists who take samples which are then sent to a laboratory in London for analysis. These tests have been carried out throughout the UK by support organisations including branches of PCaSO in Hampshire and Sussex. Rotary, Lions, Masons and sports centres in Bridport, Weymouth, Reading, Warwick, Manchester, Rugby, and Leamington have also promoted similar events.

More than 60,000 men in the UK have been tested and in Dorset, to date, the figure is almost 2,500.

Results are obtained within a few days.

Smiles all round for GCSE students

■ JOSEPH Martin and Max Otter

■ ISOBEL Townsend and her Mum Nicola Francis

THOMAS Hardye Headteacher Mike Foley has praised his students and staff for their hard work following a record breaking set of GCSE results.

The number of students achieving five passes at grade C or above, including English and maths, was 76 per cent and the number of A* grades reached almost 10 per cent, with more than half (56 per cent) of entries at grade B or above.

Eight out of ten students achieved a grade C or above in English and maths – with a pass rate of 81 per cent in maths and 86 per cent in English.

There were tears of joy for Nicola Francis and her daughter Isobel Townsend: "I'm really happy. I have four A*, six As and one B," said Isobel. "I'm very proud, very proud indeed. Whatever her achievement we've told her we're very proud of how hard she's worked, but the fact she has done so well, that really is the icing on the cake," added her Mum.

Headteacher Mike Foley said: "These exceptional results have been achieved at a time when schools face a volley of reforms to the curriculum, qualifications and exam regulations. However, students have responded magnificently with the support of their teachers and their families.

"Congratulation to the staff at Thomas Hardy, and staff in our feeder schools, who have done so much to contribute to our continued success."

Sitting on a wall beside the noisy excitement of the playground, friends Joseph Martin and Max Otter smiled with relief.

"I'm pleased. I got into college and I'm doing level three engineering," said Joseph.

"I did the same," said Max, "I got into college and I'm doing level three sports science next year. It has been a nerve-wracking day, I woke up this morning and it hit me. But it's alright now. I'm happy. And now it's on to the next adventure."

Blacksmiths converge on county show for national competition final

BLACKSMITHS from around the country will be taking part in the final of their annual National Competition at Dorchester Showground this weekend.

Now in its 20th year, the competition started back at the beginning of May with a tour of other major county shows, before the finale at Dorchester on September 3rd and 4th.

The competition is divided into two categories and points are accrued at each competition by the winners for "live" and "static" forgework, with each Show Champion winning ten points and the reserve being awarded four.

Dorset has a strong blacksmith tradition and the facilities at the Kingston Maurward Agricultural College are among the best in the country.

Its principal tutor Simon Grant-Jones has won the national competition twice and has recently been awarded a bronze medal by the Worshipful Company of Blacksmiths, which sponsors the competition and has been in existence since 1299.

Chief Executive Martin Heath said the aim of the competition was to encourage budding blacksmiths to exhibit their work and have their skills recognised: "The network of county shows provides the ideal opportunity to showcase some of the best work taking place in the country."

"We are seeing a real change in the role of the blacksmith. Until fairly recently, every village had a blacksmith, whose role was to repair farm implements and make new tools but industrialisation and mechanisation along with cheap imports mean that products are now being replaced rather than repaired."

"We are seeing a rise in the artisan blacksmiths, who are using their creativity to produce bespoke products, such as decorative railings and cast iron kitchenware."

Richard Cuzens, Dorset County Show Secretary, said he was delighted the final round of the competition was taking place at the Dorchester Showground.

"It will be great to see some of these blacksmiths using a combination of traditional techniques such as forging and fire welding alongside more modern methods such as laser-cutting."

Locals left guessing as strange 'crime scene' appears in town

A LARGE white tent, with a sign on the door warning of the dangers of entering, left curious residents wondering what crime had been committed on South Walks, Dorchester, this week.

More intriguing still were the three tall, silent figures inside the tent surrounded by strange magnetic spheres. One of the figures known as Death.

Inside the tent we discovered David Viller from BMT Defence Services and he explained what was going on: "We're carrying out a 3D laser scan for heritage purposes. The council commissioned us to make the scan so that the statues could be recreated or repaired if that ever became necessary."

The statues represent two martyrs facing Death. They make up Dame Elisabeth Frink's Dorset Martyrs' Memorial, which was unveiled exactly 30-years-ago. They commemorate the Dorset men and women who suffered for their Catholic and Protestant faiths during the religious troubles of the 16th and 17th centuries, many of whom were executed at the place where the statues stand, known as Gallows Hill.

"The scanner takes a 3D scan and then we take another from a different position. The spheres are used to reference one scan to the next. Once we've taken around 20 scans we can put them all together to create a very large and detailed scan of the statues," continued David Viller.

It's an unusual job for the Weymouth-based team as they're normally involved in defence work, using the same equipment for surveying ships and submarines.

"The county council approached us and we thought it would be nice to take up the project as we're a local company and this is for the benefit of the community," he added.

Rainbows through the rain at Love Parade

THERE were smiles and waves from shoppers in Dorchester as the colourful annual Love Parade cheered up a very rainy Bank Holiday weekend. The parade made its way from the Town Pump along South Street and Weymouth Avenue to join the free family music and entertainment day at Maumbury Rings.

Chris Kendrick is one of the organisers: "When we started seven years ago there was nothing like this at all. It gives a chance for people to come together and to promote understanding in a positive way. There are lots of organisations here today including church groups and advice and help for people as well as music and entertainment. It's a family event and it's free, so we are pleased to welcome everyone."

Katie Yeomans is a transgender awareness campaigner. She travelled from Portsmouth to support the event: "I believe in being positive. I want to inspire other transgender and LGBT people to be proud of who they are. I'm realistic and I understand that people have suffered hate crimes simply because they are gay or transgender and it is important to report incidents to the police.

"What I say to others is that, yes there are some nasty people about, but the majority of people are very nice and if you exclude yourself then you can't expect people to understand or accept you and so it has to go both ways.

"You have to embrace yourself and be proud of who you are."

"Dahlias and vegetable entries were well up and of high quality with several new exhibitors and we were also delighted that our children's entries were the best we had seen for several years."

"Begonias also did well as did gladioli and floral art in general while photography entries were also well up and handicrafts were well supported."

"It will now be all hands to the pump for our next big event which will be the Society's Spring Show in March 2017."

The art of woodcarving is alive and well

WOODCARVING is alive and well and flourishing in Dorset. The Upwey-based South Dorset Woodcarving Club has, after 14 years, just become members of the national body, the British Woodcarving Association (BWA).

Members travel from throughout Dorset, including Poole and North Dorset, to attend club meetings, although the majority of members come from the area around Weymouth, Portland and Dorchester. New members are being invited to come and join in.

"There is a carving instructor at Dorchester Arts Centre and I'm aware of him running courses for beginners, but there's nowhere for these starters to carry on and develop their hobby at very low cost," said club secretary David Whiddett.

The club has also just launched its own web site and David says that by becoming members of the new Regional Meeting of the British Woodcarving Association they become part of the 1,000-strong British Woodcarving Association which supports and spreads the word about woodcarving.

"We share information and ideas throughout the country and have the opportunity to participate in regional and national events and competitions.

"In addition, as members of the BWA, members secure public liability insurance. Our club has been running successfully for 14 years and have a small number of vacancies in our membership, especially for people with practical skills and an artistic 'bent'.

"We all have different tastes in our subject matter but have a common interest in the absorbing art of woodcarving and have a free hand in creating our own carvings at our own pace.

"We are not qualified to provide instruction but we do have a lot of experience and will advise starters on the best way forward."

The group meet every Tuesday evening at the Upwey Old School Village Hall from 7pm until 9pm. Contacts details and dates of meetings can be found on the website at www.southdorsetwoodcarvingclub.co.uk

This year the event is one of the Dorset Road League races. Joshua Hing was the first man home and Charlotte Colly the first woman to cross the finish line.

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

A ghost town overnight?

LONG suffering motorists in Weymouth and Portland were left shaking their heads in disbelief after the borough council announced yet another potential switch in its parking policy to boost revenue.

It seemed that fresh proposals could threaten free overnight parking and reduced rates not to mention bringing in charging for places such as Southill and Radipole Park Drive which had previously been free.

Fortunately councillors have now rejected those increases, but the idea of charging in previously free car parks has not been scrapped but only deferred to a December meeting of the council's management committee pending consultation for revised proposals.

To be honest, the increases and bringing back night charges had to be rejected since the ink is barely dry on council protestations that not charging at night would provide a big boost to the town's night time economy.

What councillors have approved is spending £300,000 on car park maintenance. For those of you who don't know what a council car park looks like, it is a large hole surrounded by a bit of hardstanding through which your car is driven on its way to have its springs and shock absorbers repaired!

So what is the way forward? The council must strike a balance between charging motorists for parking yet not so much they drive away the very people they are trying to attract.

What we don't want is a return to the bad old days when Weymouth and Portland was a joke with holidaymakers who cited expensive parking as their single biggest moan about the resort.

Business leaders – who have already warned that bringing back parking charges at night could see a backlash from the community – must be heaving a sigh of relief.

Visitors and shoppers will only take just so much and this column has pointed out on more than one occasion that Weymouth's new relief road doesn't just bring people into town faster.

It can take them away faster as well.

The huge growth in Dorchester where parking is much cheaper is bound to be a factor in people's choice of a shopping destination.

If people feel they can use money saved by not parking in Weymouth to pay for petrol to take them further afield to the likes of Exeter, Taunton, Yeovil, Street, Poole and Bournemouth - where they'll still have to pay for parking but the shopping choice is much greater - then it will be a consideration.

Keeping prices as they are and retaining free overnight parking is an encouragement for drivers to have faith and stay with Weymouth for their shopping.

What consultation must now do before the crucial December meeting is come up with a financial way forward which will pay for maintenance and business charges but without driving parking revenue away.

Councillors will need the wisdom of Solomon to sort this one out and avoid Weymouth becoming a ghost town.

Joy of festivals

IT was pitiful, absolutely pitiful and, while they were still young enough to misbehave, they were definitely old enough to have known better.

I speak of the "never again" wreckage sprinkled all over Weymouth and Portland which came back sadder and wiser from a certain recent pop festival.

For a start, these 50-somethings decided to camp near the site and spent several nights regretting it on a nasty slope which made sleep impossible even without all the surrounding noise of the three Ws, namely Wifi, wittering and passing wind.

Bleary eyed, they then staggered down to the festival only to find a pint and a soft drink cost £10.

And as celebrating the occasion wore on, they were less than impressed at seeing young children allowed to roam at will by mothers knocking back cider who hours later became drunk and hysterical because they couldn't find their little darlings.

The straw which broke the 50s back was the noisome toilets which one middle-aged festival goer said could only be negotiated using makeshift face masks to combat the stench and great care to negotiate the legacies of previous users who, well, hadn't taken great care!

The overall result was some heartfelt decisions that their festival going days were now officially over and they were off to bed for a much needed nap. Lightweights!

JOHN'S plan to go minimalistic in 'Books Afloat' after 33 years has suffered a slight setback...

Just in... a 9 foot shipbuilders wood hull model of a 1907 Booth liner, a 5 foot cased, live stream model by Bassett Lowke of a Union Castle liner, 5 boxes of railway books, large ships bell from HMS Bridport, 150 Enid Blyton paperbacks, an automaton singing bird in cage, a treadplate from HMS Brave, 3 'O' gauge clockwork locos... (oh, and due in, a large heavy oak cabinet used as a ticket dispenser from the old Great Western Railway!)

But there's still room for very welcome customers!

RNLI asks supporters for “one tick” to help them save lives

THE RNLI is changing the way it contacts and builds relationships with its supporters in recognition of, and respect for, the important role they play in saving lives at sea.

Supporters are at the heart of the RNLI and without this vital community no crew would be trained, no lifeboats launched and no lives saved.

From 1 January 2017, the RNLI will only contact individuals by post, email or phone if they have given their express permission.

Leesa Harwood, RNLI Fundraising Director, says: ‘We’re making this change because we believe it’s the right thing to do. We’ve always prided ourselves on our ethical approach to fundraising and we need to make sure that we respect our supporters’ wishes and only speak to those who want to hear about our lifesaving work.’

This is an opt-in system where people must choose to stay in touch. If they don’t tell the RNLI they’re happy to be contacted, the charity will no longer communicate with them after the end of 2016.

In the short term, this change could mean the RNLI loses touch with over 500,000 people – and that could impact on its ability to fundraise. That’s why, throughout 2016, the charity is contacting existing supporters to ask if they want to keep in touch. It is also exploring new ways to fund its lifesaving work.

Last year the RNLI’s volunteer lifeboat crews, lifeguards and Flood Rescue teams rescued an average of 22 people every day.

As a charity, the RNLI’s dedicated volunteers, and their lifesaving work, is funded by a community of committed supporters. There would be no RNLI without these supporters. The RNLI does not seek government funding and is almost entirely dependent on donors.

Please help the RNLI continue saving lives. All the charity needs is a tick from you to give it permission to stay in touch. Thousands have already opted in and ticked the box – will you join them and be part of a lifesaving community?

You can give your consent for the RNLI to contact you at RNLI.org.uk/TickToday or call them on 0300 300 9918, between 8am – 6pm weekdays.

Key facts about the RNLI

The Royal National Lifeboat Institution is the charity that saves lives at sea. Our volunteers provide a 24-hour search and rescue service in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland from 237 lifeboat stations, including four along the River Thames and inland lifeboat stations at Loch Ness, Lough Derg, Enniskillen and Lough Ree. Additionally the RNLI has more than 1,300 lifeguards on over 220 beaches around the UK and operates a specialist flood rescue team, which can respond anywhere across the UK and Ireland when inland flooding puts lives at risk.

The RNLI relies on public donations and legacies to maintain its rescue service. As a charity it is separate from, but works alongside, government-controlled and funded coastguard services. Since the RNLI was founded in 1824 our lifeboat crews and lifeguards have saved over 141,500 lives. Volunteers make up 95% of the charity, including 4,700 volunteer lifeboat crew members and 3,000 volunteer shore crew. Additionally, tens of thousands of other dedicated volunteers raise funds and awareness, give safety advice, and help in our museums, shops and offices.

Victorian weekend goes off with a bang

CANNON fire proved a popular attraction at the Nothe Fort's annual Victorian Weekend.

Volunteers from the Fort Artillery fired a quarter charge on a 2lb 1864 cannon – loud enough to make visitors jump and a youngster or two to burst into tears – despite the warnings.

The Fort Artillery were supposed to be joined by the Portsmouth-based Cumberland Guard but only one, Allan Harris, made it on Saturday.

"The others were coming on a bus which, unfortunately, has broken down," said Allan, who lives near Southampton and was dressed as a 1835 Marine – something he has been doing for more than 40 years.

"We get to see quite a lot of the country but it's always a special treat to come to the Nothe Fort," he said.

As well as firing cannon there were demonstrations of musket firing and bugles and drum, a Morris side also made an appearance on Saturday.

Sunday also saw the arrival of 'Queen Victoria', who inspected the troops, and the Mayor and Mayoress of Weymouth who toured the site, chatting to volunteers and visitors.

Traditional side shows of a coconut shy, roll a penny and the wet sponge stocks kept visitors of all ages amused, while historian and marine archaeologist Gordon Le Pard was on hand to explain some of the mysteries of the era – including how and why the marble came to be inside ginger beer bottles.

Damian Clarke from Dorchester entertained on Saturday with both the hurdy gurdy and the dulcimer.

Visitors Jenson and Honor Belfield from Belper, Derbyshire were amongst the first of a long line of children to have their faces painted.

The children, aged 7 and 5 respectively, were on holiday at one of the area's camp sites and enjoying their stay.

A number of craft stalls also took part in the event and Phil Warren was on hand to talk about his Matchstick Fleet with more than 200 models or ships, aircraft and other objects on display.

Southern Tenant Folk Union set to Join Forces in Dorchester

SOUTHERN Tenant Folk Union are the Edinburgh based string band that over a series of albums have produced a thought provoking and arresting take on roots & folk music. Past winners of the 'Americana Artist Of The Year' award the band have taken their music onto BBC One TV's prime political show 'The Andrew Marr Show' plus Irish TV's world famous chat show 'The Late Late Show' as well as onto stages at prestigious festivals (Celtic Connections, Belfast Open House Festival, Orkney Folk Festival, Belladrum Festival, Electric Picnic and many more).

Live reviews of their concert performances have picked up on their 'tight delivery & soaring, gorgeous harmonies' saying that 'STFU are a must see live band combining a rich blend of musical talent with a high octane Appalachian style' and they perform their own brand of 'thrilling traditional musicianship'

September 2016 sees the release of the seventh Southern Tenant Folk Union album 'Join Forces'. Written following the May 2015 general election result, and then recorded in June and July this year amidst a quickly changing political landscape, something that has made the suite of songs seem timelier still. The band will be touring to support the release throughout the remainder of 2016 and into Spring 2017.

Southern Tenant Folk Union's tour for the 'Join Forces' album comes to Dorchester' Corn Exchange on Saturday, September 30th at 8pm (doors and bar 7.30pm).

Tickets are £12, £10 for Dorchester Arts Members and concessions, and £5 as part of the Livefor5 scheme. For more details and to book call 01305 266926 or visit the website at www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Everything you always wanted to know about jazz...

HOW MUCH is written and how much improvised in jazz? How is a blues different to other jazz tunes? Where in a song do you find 'the bridge' or 'B section'? What is improvisation, an art or a science?

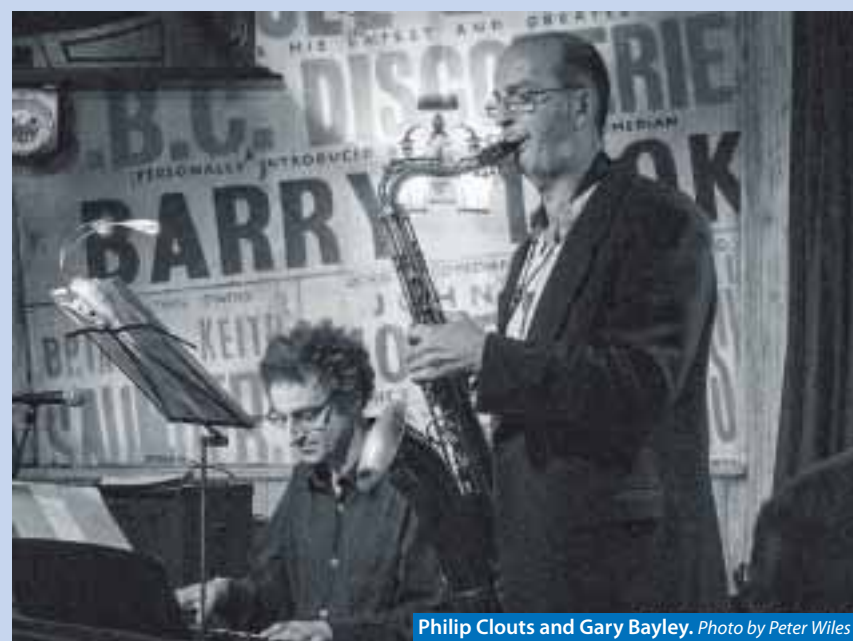

In this unique performance in the newly refurbished Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café on Friday, September 16th, Gary Bayley on saxophone and Philip Clouts at the piano will be playing a variety of jazz pieces which illustrate the answers to these, and the floor will be open for questions from the audience.

Saxophonist Gary Bayley has played jazz, soul, funk and big-band swing, as well as appearing in the recording studio as a pop 'session player'. BBC Radio 3 has described him as 'a fine original soloist in the British jazz tradition' and The Guardian praised him for 'an explosive improvising talent with a spit-fire technique'. He is currently in the ranks of legendary bandleader Mike Westbrook. He has appeared five times at the London Jazz Festival, and also at Ronnie Scott's - an accolade he shares with Philip Clouts who will be accompanying him at the piano.

Philip Clouts and Gary Bayley play at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 16th at 8pm. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or from the website at www.bridport-arts.com

The band are building a big following on the gig and festival circuit with their

Hucklebuck

Comedy Cafe back at the newly refurbished Bridport Arts Centre

THE Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Cafe gets a new home for one night only next Wednesday with another top line up of comedy talent fresh from the fringe.

The Lyric Theatre is set to host the popular comedy night for the September show with building work still continuing at the Bridport Arts Centre.

This month's show will be headlined by the award winning James Alderson, a master of observational stand up and a hit with audiences of all ages. James headlined the comedy cafe in 2013 and was a huge hit with the crowd and is now back by popular demand. In the meantime he has performed internationally from New York to Switzerland, has appeared on TV in the UK and the US and last year won the 'Best Comedy Act' at the WOW247 awards.

James Alderson

Opening the show will be one of the most exciting new satirical acts working today, Joe Wells. Joe has just returned from the Edinburgh Fringe where he has been performing his critically acclaimed show "10 things I hate about UKIP" for the last month.

Dubbed a "Star of the future" by The Guardian Joe's political comedy has caught the eye of some of the biggest names in stand up and he has recently supported both Alexei Sayle and Frankie Boyle off the back of his growing fame.

In the middle will be runner up in this year's South Coast Comedian of the Year competition, Sunjai Arif, and resident comedian and local performer, Niki McCretton.

As ever, Bridport comedian Tom Glover will MC the show, chatting with the crowd and road testing his latest material.

"I can't wait to get back into the new look Arts Centre space but it is exciting to take the comedy cafe to a different venue for the first time, Tom said. "I hope our regulars will be happy to make the trip across the road and it would be great to see some new faces in the crowd as well.

"This month features some of my very favourite acts and it's a real mixed bill with something for everyone."

The next Comedy Café night will be on Wednesday, September 7th at 8pm. At The Lyric Theatre for one night only. Tickets are £8 and available online or from the arts centre box office as usual on 01308 424204.

Dorset band receives double award from regional law firm after winning three county Battle of the Bands competition

DORCHESTER band The Stylers, who recently triumphed in a competition to spot young musical talent across the counties of Devon, Dorset and Somerset, have received their trophies from key event partner Bevis & Beckingsale.

The Stylers beat off stiff competition from across the three counties at the TBOB Battle of the Bands competition, held in the Dorset village of Thorncombe this summer. They were voted Overall Winners and Best U21 band.

The four musicians won a full day in a recording studio with professional producer Phil Nicholas who has worked with a number of top acts, including Def Leppard, Billy Ocean and Bryan Adams. The prize was presented to them last week by solicitor Mark Carlisle, a Partner at law firm Bevis & Beckingsale, which has offices in Axminster, Chard, Honiton and Seaton.

Mark Carlisle said: "Supporting the local community is one of our firm's core values. That's why we were delighted to be involved with the Battle of the Bands. The quality of entrants was extremely high, but The Stylers were deserved winners.

"It's great to see such talented youngsters. No doubt they will make great use of this opportunity and go on to bigger things. They are charming and dedicated and I wish them the very best of luck."

The youngest member of the band, 16 year old Will Davies (Lead Guitar), has just taken his GCSEs at Thomas Hardy School in Dorchester. His fellow bandmates Nat Burnell (Drums) and Alfie Neale (Rhythm Guitar and Lead Vocals), both 17, are in the Sixth Form at Thomas Hardy. Arthur Lashmar (Bass Guitar), who's 19, has just left and is about to take up a place at Exeter University.

Will Davies said: "Winning TBOB means the world to us as it was our first competition. We only started playing together about six months ago and exams have got in the way of rehearsals. Winning really encourages us to carry on with our music."

Phil Gordon, TBOB organiser & promoter, commented: "The standard of musicianship in the competition was outstanding and the feeling of encouragement between the bands was fabulous to see."

"Bevis & Beckingsale supporting the first ever TBOB made a huge difference and I've already been persuaded to look at TBOB II for next year. There is so much musical talent in this area and events like ours can showcase this talent, getting bands to a wider audience."

Other awards in the Battle of the Bands went to Cloutsham from Wellington (Best original song) and Recovering Satellites from Bridgwater (Best cover version).

Kiwi comic to headline Pilot Boat comedy night

COMEDY returns to the Pilot Boat Inn in Lyme Regis next week with a host of comics fresh from the Edinburgh Festival.

The award winning Kiwi comic Javier Jarquin will headline the latest Pilot Boat comedy night on Saturday, September 3rd supported by a line up of top acts and regular MC Tom Glover.

Jarquin has just returned from the Edinburgh fringe where he has been performing his hilarious new show 'Hombre Al Dente' to rave reviews from punters and critics alike.

A master of observational comedy, Jarquin has cemented himself on the UK comedy scene having relocated from the southern hemisphere in 2010, where he had established himself as a TV comic in Australia and New Zealand.

Having originally established himself as a comedy magician with his act as the 'Card Ninja', Javier is now better known for his razor sharp wit.

Opening the show will be former South Coast comedian of the Year and rising star on the circuit, Mike Cox. Instantly likeable, Cox has been dubbed the new Rob Beckett and is similarly cheeky and hilarious in his approach to stand up. Fastly rising up the comedy ladder, Mike Cox is a name to look out for as he's destined for bigger and better things.

Completing the bill will be two of the best new acts on the circuit in Sunjai Arif and Aaron Simmonds and regular comper Tom Glover will host the show.

"After a break for a month for the Edinburgh festival we're back at the Pilot Boat for our fourth comedy night," he said.

"The first three have been excellent and we've had great support from the Lyme Regis crowd. I think this month's show offers something for everyone, I've worked with all the acts and they're all hilarious in their own unique ways.

"I hope we can continue to build on the success of previous shows and I can continue to bring the best new names in stand up down to Lyme Regis."

Tickets for the show are £8 and are available on the door. However, to avoid disappointment, you are advised to get your tickets in advance direct from the Pilot Boat Inn or reserve them on 01297 443157.

Pajama Men: 2 Man 3 Musketeers

Award-winning sketch duo announce tour, bringing acclaimed show to venues around UK

THE shape-shifting and spectacularly surreal character-based double act, the Pajama Men, are delighted to announce their tour of 2 Man 3 Musketeers following a run at The Edinburgh Festival Fringe. Taking in an over 30 dates around the UK, the tour showcases Soho Theatre's commitment to touring and sharing the best work with the widest possible audience around the UK and beyond. The Pajama Men tour begins at the Edinburgh Fringe on the 22nd August and concludes on the 29th October at the Stafford Gatehouse Theatre.

2 Man 3 Musketeers is the Pajama Men's first epic novel adaptation, it premiered to critical acclaim at 2015's Melbourne International Comedy Festival before an acclaimed run at 2015's Edinburgh Festival Fringe. The duo's - Mark Chavez and Shenoah Allen - latest ambitious undertaking is a live, comic, existential meltdown that takes place as the two comedians attempt to stage Dumas' epic, historical, romance novel from 1844...in under an hour...all thanks to a call from Kelly Leonard, vice president of American comedy institution Second City.

Leonard, the man who took a chance on them after seeing them in their first Edinburgh back in 2004, before they'd circumnavigated the globe several times over, called them out of the blue two years ago and said he had an idea for a show, 2 Man 3 Musketeers, and he wanted them to write it. So, in the bowels of strange venues and random hotel rooms in nine different cities across three continents, Mark Chavez and Shenoah Allen have made the classic novel their own - joined early in the process by American writer and improviser Tim Sniffen, and later by Argentinean musician Ignacio Agrimbau - filling it with gay centaurs and talking birds.

The show is scored with a Khaen (a Thai mouth organ you play with your face), a Hulusi (a Chinese reed instrument) and a Gylil (a West African Xylophone) and a bunch of other bizarre instruments from around the globe. Jetlagged and under slept, the Pajama Men performed and improvised the show in Australia, and as it came into its own they have subsequently fallen in love with it.

With plans to share the best work from their London stage with greater audiences across the world, Soho Theatre are working with associate venues who share the same ambition for quality and new audiences. Touring work to festivals, across the UK and internationally, including Australia, Japan, India, South Korea, USA, Canada, Croatia and Ireland. Soho Theatre has also created new opportunities for artists to work in digital forms under the new Soho Theatre Live banner. Producing several DVDs of headline performances each year, the range currently includes Pajama Men's Pterodactyl Nights.

Sarah Dodd, Soho Theatre Touring Producer said: "With their unique and wonderfully weird theatrical comedy, the Pajama Men have always felt like a perfect match for Soho Theatre. Having worked with them since 2009, with several sell out and often extended seasons at Soho Theatre, West End runs and as part of our Edinburgh Festival Fringe programme, we're very excited to be able to bring this brilliantly inventive and truly original comedy act to an even wider audience as part of our newly expanded touring programme."

Soho Theatre presents The Pajama Men: 2 Man 3 Musketeers at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, September 3rd, 8pm.

Tickets are £14 and £12 concessions, available online via the website at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Film Society launches new season of world cinema!

BRIDPORT Film Society has recently announced details of the film programme for its 2016-17 season. This comprises a carefully curated selection of contemporary films from all over the world, including Chile, Indonesia, Ethiopia, Ukraine, Turkey, Iran, France, Germany, Italy, UK and even a comedy from Belgium!

Said BFS Chairman, Chris Pike: "Each year, our programming committee spends many hours watching and debating the merits of more than 60 films in pursuit of thought-provoking and inspiring choices. This year's selection is richly diverse, full of hidden gems and will I am sure, also deliver a few surprises along the way!"

The season kicks off on Tuesday, September 27th with Victoria, a thriller about two hours in the life of an immigrant worker in Germany, which develops intense suspense over an amazingly unedited single take. Other season highlights Palio, which looks at Siena's famous bareback horse race; Alejandro Jodorowsky's surreal coming of age tale, The Dance of Reality; and Tangerines, a story of gentle reconciliation bridging the ethnic divide in a Georgian village.

The Film Society will also host a special event on Tuesday, December 13th as a fund-raiser for Bridport Arts Centre, the much-loved and newly renovated venue for all screenings. The film will be chosen by our membership and the screening will be followed by our ever popular 'pre-Christmas' social.

Full season details are available at www.bridportfilmsociety.com. Printed brochures are available from the Bookshop, Fruits of the Earth and from our stall outside the Arts Centre on Sat Aug 27th from 10am to 1pm. Full season membership costs £35, and typically reaches capacity well before the start of the season.

5 TIPS FOR GOOD LIGHTING

1. LIGHTING should be at three levels in a room - the floor, walls and ceiling, so think about all three. Plan your scheme in advance - if you're having electrical work done, make sure the sockets are fitted where you want your table and floor lamps, for example.

2. Lighting can be much more creative and useful than just an overhead light in each room. In bedrooms, do you want wall lights over the bed for reading, or will bedside lamps do? Don't forget wall lights in the bathroom, perhaps for creating a relaxing atmosphere when you're soaking in the tub, and on either side of the mirror for shaving and applying makeup. An illuminated mirror is another option.

3. Target lighting, especially in kitchens, can be both practical and attractive. Consider fitting statement pendant lights low over a kitchen island unit or dining table for a fantastic feature and, often, a softer way to light the room than with spotlights. If you enjoy cooking, lights to illuminate the kitchen worktops (fitted under the wall units) may work well, and think about having strip lights along the wall units and/or kick boards for a dramatic effect.

4. If you're doing major building work, such as an extension or loft conversion, you may be surprised how early you need to decide on the position of everything electrical and the number of sockets, spotlights, switches, etc. In both extensions and loft conversions, recessed spotlights are often fitted throughout and although they're not the cheapest, it's a good idea to request LED bulbs. Some electricians and builders fit LEDs as standard, but not all, and some building control inspectors insist that LEDs are fitted, but again not all. LEDs are much cheaper to run than conventional bulbs and usually last much longer. They'll also improve your home's Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) if you ever decide to sell or rent out your home, so they're well worth investing in.

5. In rooms with lots of recessed spotlights, ask your electrician to zone them so each zone (sitting area, kitchen, dining area, etc) is on a different switch, which will give you more flexibility and control. You may also want dimmer switches so, again, the lighting's fully controllable and you don't have to sit and relax in bright overhead light. Another thing to consider is the colour of the LED bulbs because it will make a big difference to the overall effect - I recommend warm white bulbs for a cosy glow.

Vauxhall test drive programme offers £500 off new Corsa or ADAM

VAUXHALL retailers are offering customers £500* towards the cost of a new ADAM or Corsa model when they book a test drive during August and September. The Test Drive programme will take place at Vauxhall retailers nationwide and applies to selected ADAM or Corsa models purchased and registered between now and 30th September.

The £500 Test Drive offer is available in addition to Vauxhall's other great discounts, which include a range of finance offers and Flexible Personal Contract Purchase Plans (PCP). Customers can make their new Corsa or ADAM even more affordable with low monthly payments and all the flexibility that PCP finance allows at the end of the chosen term.

"Vauxhall's Test Drive Programme is a great opportunity for customers to not only experience the new Corsa or ADAM, but to also walk out knowing they have secured a great deal," said Leon Caruso, Vauxhall's Retail Sales Director. "It's a good opportunity for customers to make a saving on their new car while making the most of a number of great finance offers too."

*Participating Retailers only. £500 Test Drive offer only available on limited, selected Corsa and ADAM models, excluding Corsa Sting and Corsa Sting R, and excludes certain allowances which the Participating Retailers can advise. Offer available on eligible, selected new vehicles ordered from 18th August 2016 and registered by 30th September 2016. Offer applies to private individuals, Vauxhall Partners and small businesses 1-24 units (purchase only). All other customers are excluded. Terms, conditions and exclusions apply. Visit www.vauxhall.co.uk/500testdrive or contact your local retailer for further details.

Magpies &amp; Terras in Evostik Premier League

Magpies first half failure proves fatal

Dorchester Town 0 Cambridge City 2
Evo-Stik Premier – att 301

DORCHESTER'S lack lustre first half performance saw them slump to defeat at The Avenue on Saturday.

They were much better after the break but were unable to breakdown a resilient Cambridge City defence, that saw the Lilywhite's leapfrog them at the bottom of the Evo-Stik South Premier League.

Manager Mark Jermyn named an unchanged side from the one that won at Banbury the previous Saturday, but they failed to produce anything like that form in the first half, as Cambridge set about their task with confidence from the first whistle.

They showed their intentions in the fourth minute when Charlie Woolfe let fly with a low shot that bounced just in front of Shane Murphy who managed to palm it away.

However their dominance was rewarded in the 11th minute when Woolfe evaded Jermyn to fire in a left footed shot that struck the right post and rebounded across goal for Tunde Adewunmi to fire into an open goal.

Unfortunately Woolfe was replaced soon after with concussion after colliding with Nathan Walker, who almost immediately after, provided Dorchester's only threat on goal in the first half when he was just wide with a header from Neil Martin's free kick.

The Magpies looked impotent despite good possession, which was so often wasted by inaccurate passing.

Cambridge capitalised and added a second in the 35th minute. Keeper Enol Ordenez's long kick was hooked on by Adewunmi into the path of substitute Giovany Lopes who beat Murphy with a shot through his legs.

This brought an immediate response from Jermyn who sent Walker up front to bolster the attack, and at the break replaced Tony Lee and Dory Yates with Liam Sayers and Ben Wood.

With Walker winning the majority of balls in the air, Sayers strength and speed down the flanks caused problems with his accurate crosses, whilst Wood's guile and precise passing immediately put the Lilywhites under pressure.

David Jerrard could have pulled a goal back within 90 seconds of the restart, but after winning the ball inside the box and making space for himself, he fired too close to Ordenez who pushed his effort away.

Two minutes later, Dorchester should have been awarded a penalty when Walker was obviously pushed in the back by Paul Cooper as he rose to nod Sayers dinked cross into an open goal. The bombardment continued with Sayers' goalbound shot blocked by Charlie Day, Walker heading the resultant corner just over the top, and Wood's 25-yard angled shot just wide of the left hand post.

However Cambridge held on as they got everyone back behind the ball. Even in added time the Magpies were pushing to score as Sayers snap shot hit the side netting, and Walker was thwarted by Ordenez when his hooked shot from Woods pass appeared a certain consolation.

Yetton strikes for battling Terras*CHESHAM UNITED 1 WEYMOUTH 1Evo-Stick Premier – att; 288*

STEWART Yetton claimed a point for Weymouth

with a goal just before the interval, as the Terras hung on after Calvin Brooks was sent off midway through the second half for a second bookable offence.

The Generals were in charge from the start and went ahead on 15 minutes when Dan Thomas, replacing player manager Jason Matthews, was beaten by Dave Pearce's corner which evaded everyone.

They should have doubled their advantage as they took control of the game, but were pegged back against the run of play a minute from the break when Yetton produced a deft finish for his first goal of the season.

Chesham once again took control at the start of the second half, and Thomas produced a superb save to deny Drew Roberts, to keep Weymouth in the game.

Things got worse for the visitors when Brooks was dismissed, but they gamely battled on, and could even have snatched the points late on when Yetton thumped the crossbar, before Thomas once again kept the Generals at bay with a number of fine saves.

Portland United football round-up

Defeat, but signs are good for Blues

Portland Utd 1
Blackfield & Langley 2
*Sydenhams Wessex League
Premier – att 208*

DESPITE incurring their first defeat of the season against Wessex League Premier Division favourites Blackfield & Langley, Portland United assistant manager Mark Carter is more than happy with the start they have made following promotion last season.

Unavailability through work, family holiday commitments and injuries has meant that manager Gary Bailey has had to shuffle his pack, but the Blues still remain second.

Carter said: "What was a 20 strong squad for the opening game has been decimated in recent weeks. Lewis Whyton still is recovering from a cracked bone in his foot whilst others have been absent for a variety of reasons. Hopefully we should have everyone back soon."

Portland went into Saturday's game at New Grove Corner top after four wins and a draw to date, but Blackfield & Langley were always going to be a tough test.

The Blues got off to the ideal start when Jamis Beasley scored in the second minute when he fired home after being set-up by Ryan McKechnie, and were well worth their half-time lead.

The Watersiders upped their game in the second half and equalised early on with a clever free-kick routine that allowed former Poole Town midfielder Carl Preston to score with an angled shot.

It appeared that the game would end even, but with just three minutes remaining, Tim Sills who joined the club in the summer from Weymouth, where he had been assistant manager, rose highest to head the winner into the top corner.

Carter reflecting on the match said: "They were well organised and fit, but I thought we deserved a draw."

"They did have the lion's share of the play after the break, but we let them have the ball as they liked to play it along the back a lot.

"However, we were good at frustrating them and played some good counter attacking football.

"They have a young striker Jamie White who has been scoring a lot of goals in pre-season, but he was well contained and hardly had a sniff."

The Blues travelled to HAMWORTHY UNITED last night (Tuesday), who despite some good results in cup competitions, appear unable at present to replicate it in the league.

Double cheer as Cattistock and Charlton Down land league titles

WITH STUART BROOM

THERE was double celebration for local cricket this season with Cattistock and Charlton Down both promoted as champions of their leagues.

CATTISTOCK won Division Two by 46 points, with just two defeats all season. Their defeat of Compton House on Saturday was their eleventh consecutive victory.

CHARLTON DOWN who only suffered one defeat this campaign, against Corfe Mullen two weeks ago, completed their fourth consecutive promotion when winning Division 4 with 300 points, the most in the Dorset League, by 40 points.

Despite the disappointment of their clubs not winning the Premier League title this season, Dan Belt (Dorchester) and Ed Nichols (Martinstown) have finished the season as Dorset Cricket League's top two run scorers.

Belt who scored 27 on Saturday finished top with 772, whilst Nichols couldn't quite catch him; his 30 against this year's champions Wimborne & Colehill saw him fall just short with 750.

Dorset Premier League

Premier League

DORCHESTER (4) 156 ALL OUT LOST TO

SWANAGE (19) 212-4 BY 56 RUNS

DORCHESTER finished the season with a disappointing home defeat that saw them finish fourth after looking to challenge at mid-season.

Electing to bat, Swanage made the most of the conditions. Matt Thomas who carried his bat for a superb 120 not out and Mike Wells (30) put on 97 for the first wicket before Jack Walklett (2-40) had captain Wells caught, and trapped keeper Lewis Kirby for a duck.

However Swanage, with Thomas dictating reached 212-4 in their innings reduced to 35 overs because of rain.

Dan Belt (27) and James Dunham (41) put on 50 for the first wicket, but only captain Simon Mitchem (29) and Stefan Taylor (17) reached double figures as the county town were dismissed for 156 all out.

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL (18) 156-6 BEAT

MARTINSTOWN (5) 155-9 BY 4 WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN almost upset the party as Wimborne & Colehill just collected enough points to hold off Poole Town and take the Premier League title.

The hosts had a three point lead going into the final game of the season, and therefore required a minimum of 18 points to be crowned champions.

In the end they made it with 11 balls to spare, but not before Chris Read gave them a scare by bagging four wickets as Wimborne scrambled the ten runs needed for victory.

Winning the toss, Martinstown captain Ed Nichols decided to bat. He lost fellow opener Lee House (6) on 27, but had built a solid partnership of 43 with Ben Lawes at drinks.

Unfortunately, Nichols was dismissed soon after for 30, and whilst Lawes defied the home bowlers to remain undefeated with 55*, only John Stewart (10) and Colin Crosthwaite (11) reached double figures before both being run out as the spinners struck, and the visitors were dismissed for 155 all out.

The hosts got off to an excellent start with Colin Randall (39) and George Bartlett (43), aided by an unusual amount of extras, putting on 101 for the first wicket.

Like Wimborne, Martinstown's spinners, Ryan Chase (1-27), Lawes (0-25) and George Pope (1-24) took a firm grip and runs were hard to come by, but at 146-2 and ten runs required, Read (4-39) was brought back into the attack.

His devastating spell saw Wimborne slump to 153-6, but they just managed to limp over the line to claim the title by one point.

Nichols said: "We certainly gave them a scare. Our spinners bowled beautifully and Chris Read's second spell certainly had them on the back foot and nervous."

County Division 2

CATTISTOCK (20) 288 BEAT

COMPTON HOUSE (6) 117 BY 161 RUNS

THE feature of Cattistock's innings was that six of their top seven all made useful contributions as the set a total of 289 for victory.

Opener Billy Walbridge (0) was the unfortunate one to miss out, as Joe Baggs top scored with 74 with Jon Bagg (31), Steve Tucker (26), Liam Toohill (36), Sam Baker (20) and another whirlwind 49 from 28 balls from Bradley Damen all joining in.

Compton House never recovered from losing both openers captain Mike Harper and Sri Ramakrishnan without a score on the board.

They were 8-3 after six overs and when Damen (3-32) bowled Mark Casely (4) and had Rich Milard (14) caught, the visitors were 20-4.

Although Tom Diment (20) and Brandon Ward (28) offered some resistance, and later Jonny White (27) they couldn't stop Cattistock ending the season on a high with Legg claiming 3-17 from six overs.

PORTLAND RT (20) 272-2 BEAT

STALBRIDGE 2ND (4) 174 ALL OUT BY 98 RUNS

CAPTAIN Matt Randall signed off for the season by carrying his bat for a magnificent 124* as Portland RT beat Stalbridge 2nds and secure a midtable position.

Both Elliott Sawyer and Ryan Price had made useful contributions before Randall was joined by Callan Laws.

They produced a scintillating unbeaten third wicket stand of 197 with Laws also reaching his century with 105 not out.

Stalbridge started brightly but the dismissal of the evergreen and experienced Mark Chant who had started to look dangerous by Jon Cameron perhaps was the turning point to Triangles victory.

With him gone the hosts claimed wickets at regular intervals with Cameron finishing with four, and regular wicketkeeper Chris Theakstone playing outfield claiming two wickets with a varied style of bowling.

Randall said: "It's nice to finish with a win especially following last week's horrendous showing."

County Division 3

STURMINSTER MARSHALL (20) 212-5 BEAT

BEAMINSTER (2) 95 BY 117 RUNS

BEAMINSTER were comprehensively beaten by 122 runs at Sturminster Marshall after a woeful batting display.

The hosts were inserted and when Will Moss (2-31) took two wickets in his second over to leave the hosts 51-4, Beaminster appeared in control of the match.

However, Sturminster capitalised on fielding errors and punished loose deliveries, and an excellent fifth wicket partnership of 105 between R Humphrey 87* and J Flower (72).

Although the economical Ross Baker (1-27) returned to dismiss Flower, Sturminster continued to score runs freely before closing on 215-5.

With the exception of an excellent partnership between Baker (27) and Pete Bustin (36) the Beaminster batter's showed little fight and application.

They were dismissed for just 93 in 22 overs; the sorry card included five ducks, three in the last four balls, and nine single figure scores.

This was a disappointing end to an otherwise encouraging season.

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 3RD (7) 156-9 LOST TO

DORCHESTER 2ND (19) 348-7 BY 192 RUNS

DORCHESTER 2nds were in imperious form as they crushed Wimborne & Colehill with Pete Moxom and Simon Joslin both claiming centuries.

Batting first Moxom and Malcolm Stroudley (34) put on 50 for the first wicket before the latter was trapped leg before by the hosts top bowler John Ridout (4-44).

Although only contributing nine, captain Mike Peake helped the aggressive Moxom add 70 in a second wicket partnership.

Pete Diffey batted sensibly for 22, before Moxom was joined by Joslin in a stand of 66 before Moxom departed for a fantastic 143 out of a total of 234-4.

From this point it was Joslin that led the way as he helped Dorchester to another 118 runs of which his four partners scored just 12 runs between them.

Faced with an almost impossible task, Wimborne were soon in trouble mainly through Tom Chedzoy (3-23 from nine overs), and at 70-8 were expecting a humiliation, but Ridout also performed with the bat.

In an act of defiance he scored 22* and with fellow tailender Adrian Loader they added 71 for the ninth wicket, and with Paul Dyer (10*) denied Dorchester total dominance.

County Division 4

DORSET INDIAN TIGERS (9) 155 LOST TO

ABBOTSBURY (20) 215 BY 60 RUNS

ABBOTSBURY finished a mixed season with victory over Dorset Indian Tigers.

CHARLTON DOWN (18) 169-6 BEAT

PUDDLETOWN (7) 166-6 BY 4 WICKETS

CHAMPIONS Charlton Down completed their league winning season with a close four wicket victory over local rivals Puddletown.

James Pretty crafted an elegant half century in an opening partnership of 75 with Roger Frapwell, setting up the successful run-chase in the 39th over.

Puddletown were put into bat following a morning of torrential downpours and got off to the worst possible start with Chris Ascott being bowled by Matt Stevens off the first ball of the innings.

Lucas Allen and Gary Littlechild steady the innings and brought up a fifty run partnership but the change of pace to spin saw Kim Park trap Littlechild (16) leg before.

Allen and Adam Weir batted soundly and added 43 before the talented Allen was eventually caught at the third attempt by Marc Spurway for 52 off the bowling of Park (2-23) who bowled with great control and extracted good spin from the wicket, and was so unlucky not to bag more wickets.

The patient Weir (13), who batted for over an hour, was eventually bowled by the extra pace of Spurway (1-14).

But Mike Hoffman and Ollie Thomson decided the best form of defence was attack and Hoffman (29) cleared the boundary twice before the returning Matt Stevens (2-36) bowled him.

Thomson (20) and Crabb continued the charge, but it was the returning Dan Stevens (1-22) who snapped up the wicket of Thomson which saw him take the leading wicket taker prize in Saturday matches, and bragging rights, with 23, one more than his brother Matt, as Puddletown posted a challenging 166-6.

Charlton Down needed a solid start to their innings and it was the experienced Frapwell and Pretty who duly obliged, with 75-0 at the drinks break after 20 overs.

But a change of bowling saw the evergreen Steve Chaldicott start to pose problems.

He bowled Frapwell (22) with a yorker, before a really good running catch by Allen saw Pretty, who pounced on any short or over pitched balls which saw him classically drive to the cover boundary on many occasions, dismissed for a fine 50.

Chaldicott who also claimed Nick Voss (13) and Dan Stevens (0), finishing his seven over spell with impressive figures of 4-16 as the hosts slumped to 116-4.

However, the strength in the hosts batting saw Matt Stevens (36*) see his team through to victory, with a very mature head, helped by Park (14).

With Stevens stroking the ball to every part of the Herrison Oval, and impeccable timing in their running between the wickets they took the score to within four of victory.

Hoffman (2-25) then struck twice to make the run chase a little closer than what it might have been.

But it was fitting that Stevens caressed a full toss through midwicket to claim the victory with nine balls remaining.

Celebrations commenced at the end of the match as Charlton Down enjoyed winning the league and promotion for an incredible fourth consecutive year.

To think the club only commenced Saturday cricket four years ago, it has been a tremendous effort to continue their amazing progression.

Close finish to revived junior boat festival

AFTER a gap of several years, the annual Junior Boat Festival finally made it onto West Bay SAC's junior fixture list.

Fished out of West Bay ten junior anglers signed on to fish aboard the Jolly Dodger in settled weather on August 18th.

Fishing was a little slow during the match over a four hour period, but all competitors managed to land fish.

This was the first time the boat festival was fished according to the club's measure and release points system introduced in recent years. This enables most fish to be released immediately unless destined for the pot or for use as bait. Species caught included pout, scad, bull huss, cuckoo wrasse, lesser spotted dogfish, ballan wrasse and mackerel.

Ollie Butler won the top prize and trophy with 11 points, narrowly beating runner-up Aaron Chambers just a point behind, with Jack Parkman third with six points.

The top three received tackle vouchers, and there were additional prizes for longest fish and best mackerel.

The club would like to thank all at Jolly Dodger Charters for making this trip possible and also Jason Salvador Swords for the main prizes and Lynn Mudford for additional prizes. Full details as follows:

1st: Ollie Butler 11pts; 2nd: Aaron Chambers 10; 3rd: Jack Parkman 6.

Longest fish: Harry Courtice bull huss 62cm; Longest mackerel: Kadie Lynham 28cm.

Pugilists hit by newbies

Bridport & West Dorset Club Indoor

LEADERS Pugilists found the Rovers of Sharon and Les Heath & Brian Suffling; all three new members; too good for them in the latest round of the Evening League, as they turned in a five star performance to win 13-8.

The result means that Divers are now only one point behind them after a 11-8 win over the Cyclists, with Keith Peraux & Barry Mapson doing the business here, whilst Di Neal, Julie Bright & Brian Baker's Gymnasts dented the Fencers hopes with a 13-9 win, leaving the Fencers four points behind the Pugilists in third spot.

Bottom side Wrestlers comprising Mary Hansford & Jenny Harding were on good form as they recorded only their second win with a 16-13 victory against Hurdlers.

Tracy Marley, Chas Clarke & Peter Hunt's Archers beat Decathletes 14-11, whilst the Swimmers of Darren Simpson, Liz Walker & Robin Pither's got the better of the Equestrians 12-11.

Morning League leaders Gunners appeared to be cruising to another win as they led second placed Canaries 9-1, but big birds David Jenkin, Mel Hargett & Mike Fletcher produced a great 1,5,2 finish to win 14-10, and are now only two points behind them.

Pat Waters, Hunt & Tony Harrison's Red Devils leapfrogged Spurs to go third after trouncing them 20-8, and Ruby Winton, John Boxall & Tony Bartlett's 1,1 finish saw Potters beat Cherries 11-10.

The Glovers of Bernard Perry, Barbara Jenkins & Chris Everest are rocketing up the table after destroying the Magpies 23-5.

Margaret Pestelle, Val Dodd & Tony Sharood's Toffees came from 3-6 down to beat the Foxes 15-6, whilst a tremendous 2, 5, 2, 4 burst was enough for Gordon Lee, Peter Varney and Len Guppy's Hammers to beat the Pensioners 19-7.

Lyme Regis Golf

THE LANGMOOR TROPHY bogey competition was won by vice captain Mark Lewis who had a good front nine and held his nerve to come in four better overall, with Peter Beviss and Rob Clapp both two better in 2nd and 3rd respectively.

THE SEPTUAGENARIANS TROPHY was won by Malcolm Hinxman who had a better back nine to beat Gary Vaughan on countback, both with 38 points with the evergreen Colin Conn in 3rd on 37.

The juniors mopped up the MIDWEEK STABLEFORD as Alfie Crisp romped home with 39 points from fellow juniors Bradley Searle (35) and Dominic Beardwood (33). The LADIES PAR CUP saw Rosemary Dare show a clean pair of heels to the rest by scoring +3 with the two in form players, Kate Smith and Kim Beauchamp finishing 2nd and 3rd respectively on -1.

The JUNIOR ORDER OF MERIT was won by Dominic Beardwood, whose nett 69 was the only under par score, from Zac Mudford (76), and Brad Searle with nett 80.

New coach Wes Lewis is quickly establishing a good rapport with the players and is looking to bringing success to the Brewery ground improving on their 5th placed finish.

For player Lewis is returning to the club as player-coach and is bringing with him his experience gained as a player at Cardiff University as well as his time spent working for Cardiff Blues and London Irish.

All new players are very welcome and those interested should contact by email either Club Captain Tom Gamwell at tongamwell@gmail.com or Chairman Allan Staerck at astaerck@hotmail.co.uk

Lyme Regis Bowls

Lyme Men survive by the skin of their teeth

THE championship side travelled to Melcombe Regis last Monday needing to fire on all cylinders. Paul Pomeroy's rink stormed away to an ultimately unassailable lead. That left Barry Rattenbury's and Paul Moffitt's rinks to do the business. Barry's rink started off poorly, and were soon several shots adrift whilst Paul's rink were nip and tuck all the way through.

Barry managed to draw shot with the last wood of the game and secured a single shot victory. Frantic phone calls were now being made to try and ascertain the result of the game between Greenhill and Branksome Park with whom we were battling to stay up.

Paul tried to find a covering shot with his last wood, not easy at Melcombe, and managed to convert a one shot lead into a two shot deficit!

Ready to fall on his sword for letting the team down and casting us back into Division One, he was told that Branksome had only picked up three points so that we were remaining in the top flight by a single point!

Lyme 2 had a good eight pointer against Sherborne helped by a convincing 28-14 win by Dave Woods' rink.

In the South Dorset League it was a very sorry tale for the home side as they were thrashed 33-88 by Greenhill B.

In a nervous run-in to the end of season, the Ladies only managed to secure three points away at Gillingham. With a couple of tricky games still left to play, the ladies will have to push hard if they want to remain in Division One.

This Sunday saw the annual "101" game being contested with the Men competing for the Ben Stephens Plate and Ladies for the Beryl Stephens Plate. For the men Paul Pomeroy ran out an easy winner in his final against Chris Bell.

Pomeroy has just returned from Leamington where he was narrowly beaten by his opponent from Middlesex during his bid to become 'Champion of Champions'.

The ladies final was a real nailbiter between Pam Weech and Judith Moffitt. The game was so tight that the winner was going to be decided by whoever held shot on the last end.

The marker, when asked who was holding shot, before both ladies prepared to send up their last woods, said that it was too close to call. Judith delivered her last wood, got a tickle on the jack and nudged it towards Pam's wood. Pam stepped up put her last wood 'in her pocket'.

The 'feast' after the game was again very generously provided by Ben Stephens and prepared by the ever-present team of catering ladies.

Meanwhile, the Lyme trio of Pam Weech, Sue Rowe & Ann Allman, have won a semi-final place in the Benevolent Triples. Dorset Men's

Hardy team in final

Men's Section

LAST Sunday's competition was for the White Jug in which pairs compete in a Stableford, total of both scores to count.

Twenty-seven teams took part with two teams achieving scores of over 70. The winners were Mike Savage(9) & Grant Gerrard(14) with 75 points. Runners-up were Doug Miners(14) & Lewis Craddock(8) with 72 and Brian Savery(19) & Tony Burt(16) took third with 66.

The Mixed Midweek Medal was won by Dave Franks 76-10=66 with runner-up Pat Harper 77-10=67. Martin Drennan was third with 83-13=70. Harper's handicap was reduced by one stroke.

The Hardy B team had a good 3-2 win in the cup semi-final against Christchurch at Isle of Purbeck. Although this is the Hardy B Cup all teams in the five leagues compete so to get to the final is quite an achievement.

Bridport now play the winners of the Moors Valley V Isle of Purbeck semi-final in a two-leg home and away final.

Veteran's Section

THERE was a low turnout of 34 veterans on Melpash Show Day for their self-entry, single division Stableford.

Result: 1st Ray Southcombe(17) 39 points, 2nd Dougie Howells(19) 38, 3rd (acb) Gerald Allum(20) 37, 4th Dudley Rose(28) 37, 5th (acb) Ed Hanson(16) 36.

Mere Town 2 Bridport Reserves 3

BRIDPORT Reserves made it four wins out of four following this victory over Mere Town.

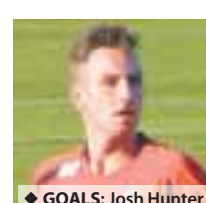

Although not their best display of the season, manager Shaun Annetts was pleased with his side's character and desire.

Reflecting on their 100 per cent record to date Annetts said: "Whilst we have yet to produce the performance as we did against Dorchester Sports in our second game, which was pretty near to perfection, I am pleased by the character of the team and our desire and will to battle back when things go wrong, which has been first class."

The Bees took the lead when Dom McAllister played a great ball inside to Josh Hunter who scored with a good shot from just inside the area.

The hosts replied when the Bees defence froze when a ball was recycled from a corner allowing the opposing striker to fire home from 12 yards.

Hunter then put Bridport back in front with a good individual second before the interval, this time producing some neat footwork before beating the keeper.

However, Bridport, who had given away a stream of free kicks in the first half, continued to do so after the interval one of which led to an equaliser in similar fashion to their first, with the Moonrakers reacting quicker to a loose ball in the box.

But Bridport once again battled back and Dan Baggs cantered down the left before cutting the ball back from the byline for Will Gape to convert at the near post for the winner 15 minutes from time.

Despite concerted pressure from the hosts the Bees defence held firm to maintain their winning start.

Annetts concluded: "It's a much better start than last year, and we have done our bit to support the first team with players stepping up whilst also accommodating those that need match practice, and we hope to introduce some of the younger third team players when we can."

INSIDE: Successful charity week at Weymouth GC

Terras take spoils in scrappy derby

Weymouth 2 Dorchester Town 1
Evo-Stik Premier - att; 1,231

WEYMOUTH claimed victory in the first derby of the season on Bank Holiday Monday with a goal in each half from Billy Lowes and Charlie Davis, and although Tony Lee pulled one back immediately, the Terras resisted Dorchester Town's late surge to try to claim a share of the spoils.

As ever the build up to these games is charged, and with players on both sides having played for the opposition previously there is always a competitive edge, and whilst the game was scrappy, it was good entertainment for the large crowd of over 1,200.

The Terras who claimed a point at Chesham United on Saturday following two defeats, made two changes, with Dan Smith and Chris Shephard returning in place of Jordan Copp and Mark Molesley.

Dorchester, who lost 2-0 at home to Cambridge United 48 hours earlier, replaced the injured Mario Mateus with Ben Wood, with player manager Mark Jermyn continuing to use Nathan Walker as a striker alongside Lee.

First chance

It was Walker who had the first attempt on goal on five minutes when he headed Wood's long throw just wide of the post.

Dorchester were setting the pace at this point and Neil Martin, who was to cause the Terras' defence anxious moments throughout the game with a number of teasing crosses, found Lee's head but he could not direct it on goal.

Weymouth replied and the Magpies' defence just managed to

by Stuart Broom
broom2006@btinternet.com

scramble away Stewart Yetton's near post flick from Shephard's corner, before Jermyn cleared Mark Cooper's effort.

Although Weymouth were in the ascendancy now, their possession wasn't putting too much pressure on the visitor's defence, and it took an exceptional strike from Lowes to bring the game alight six minutes before the interval.

The midfielder having picked the ball as it was cleared following a corner, moved forward before unleashing a 30-yard thunderbolt that flashed past Shane Murphy into the corner of the net.

Dorchester might have felt aggrieved to be behind at the break, but they came back immediately after the restart and might have equalised following Wood's pacy run and cross down the left which found Magpie's skipper Jake Smeeton, but his rasping shot was blocked by Jake Wannell.

Fine save

Smeeton went even closer in the 52nd minute when another thumping effort looked destined for the top right hand corner before Terras keeper Dan Thomas produced a flying save to push it away.

Dorchester continued to press for an equaliser, but were then stunned by a second goal on 72 minutes scored by Charlie Davis who left The Avenue in the summer to join Weymouth.

He fired a dipping free kick, from the edge of the box over the Magpies wall and into the bottom corner to double the hosts' advantage, and giving Dorchester a mountain to climb.

Despite this crushing blow, Dorchester immediately responded with a goal to match Davis' four minutes later from Lee.

His scintillating 20-yard effort cleared the wall and curled into the top corner despite Thomas' valiant effort to reach it.

This set up a frantic ending with Weymouth in the main hanging on as Dorchester surged forward, although Molesley might have sealed it had he got better contact from Smith's free kick.

Yetton then had to produce a superb tackle to prevent former Terra Martin breaking through, but in the end Weymouth took the spoils.
